A few words from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners!

I hope that your summer is going well. Vacation time is holiday time and time for rest. Everyone knows that it is the time for physical and intellectual rest. However, it should never be a holiday from God and prayer. Even on vacation we need to make time for prayer and Sunday Mass.

So, when you travel or are on vacation don't forget to go to Mass. Sometimes in a new and unknown place it is difficult to find a Catholic Church, so I offer you this internet address www.masstimes.org and wherever you are you will be able to find a church and times when Mass is celebrated. You can also still stay in touch with our parish. St. Bruno church continues to live-stream all Masses through the website page: www.stsbrunorichard.org.

On Thursday, July 25th, we will commemorate St. Christopher, the patron saint of drivers and travelers. It is the custom in our parish to bless our vehicles on the Sunday nearest to the feast (July 21st). I encourage all of you, but especially those whose new car has not been blessed yet, to attend this devotion.

God bless you!
Father Andrew

Słowo od ks. Proboszcza

Drodzy Parafianie!

Mam nadzieję, że lato mija Wam dobrze i spokojnie. Czas wakacji to czas urlopów i wypoczynku. Chodzi oczywiście o wypoczynek fizyczny i intelektualny. Nigdy bowiem nie powinno być wypoczynku od Pana Boga. Nawet, gdy jesteśmy na wakacjach, to powinniśmy znaleźć czas na modlitwę i niedzielną Mszę świętą. Czasem zdarza się, zwłaszcza będąc w nowym i nieznanym miejscu, że trudno jest znaleźć jakiś kościół katolicki. Dlatego warto zapamiętać sobie stronę internetową: www.masstimes.org, gdzie znajdziecie najbliższy kościół, w którym jest odprawiana Msza św. Oczywiście zawsze możecie też uczestniczyć we Mszy transmitowanej z kościoła św. Brunona. Wystarczy tylko wejść na stronę internetową: www.stsbrunorichard.org. Kiedy będziecie wyjeżdżać na urlop, nie zapomnijcie też zabrać ze sobą jakąś dobrą książkę religijną. Zobaczycie, że wrócić z wakacji wypoczęci fizycznie i umocnieni duchowo.

Już za niedługo, bo w czwartek 25 lipca przypada coroczne wspomnienie św. Krzysztofa - patrona kierowców i podróżujących. Tradycyjne błogosławieństwo pojazdów odbędzie się w niedzielę, 21 lipca, po wszystkich Mszach św., przed kościołem. Zachęcam wszystkich do udziału w tym obrzędzie. Zaproszenie to kieruję zwłaszcza do tych, których samochód jeszcze nigdy nie był poświęcony.

Szczęść Boże!
ks. Andrzej

Unas palabras del Párroco

Estimados feligreses,

Espero que sus días sean agradables este verano. Las vacaciones son días festivos y para descansar. Descanso físico e intelectual, pero no de Dios. Incluso en vacaciones debemos tomar un tiempo para orar y asistir a la misa dominical.

Así que no olviden ir a Misa cuando estén de vacaciones. A veces puede ser difícil encontrar una iglesia católica en un lugar desconocido, pero no se preocupen porque en este sitio web, www.masstimes.org, pueden encontrar iglesias cercas a ustedes donde sea que estén. También pueden mantenerse en contacto con nuestra parroquia. La iglesia de San Bruno continúa transmitiendo en vivo todas las misas a través de la página web: www.stsbrunorichard.org.

El jueves, 25 de julio es el día de San Cristóbal, santo patrón de los choferes y viajeros. Es tradición en nuestra parroquia de bendecir los autos el domingo más cercas a la fiesta de San Cristóbal. Así que el próximo domingo, 21 de julio, tendremos una bendición de autos después de todas las misas. Invito a todos los feligreses a participar, en especial aquellos que tienen nuevos autos que aún no han sido bendecidos.

¡Dios los bendiga!
Padre Andrew

Your Deacon Daydreams

Question? Besides receiving the Eucharist, how many encounters have you had with the Lord? The reason I am asking you this is because when you do, it's an amazing experience for sure. It's a real "AHA" moment! I am not saying you have to be a visionary like the children of Fatima or St. Faustina or St. Margaret Mary Alacoque either. It's just that moment or realization that God just worked in your life in such an incredible way. The time you held your newborn baby is just one way or saw a rainbow after a disastrous storm. We have all had encounters with God but do we realize it or not? I do know we wish the moment could last longer or we can't wait for the next experience to happen. And when we do have those meetings with Christ, do we freely share them or do we just keep it to ourselves? You don't need to be a preacher to do that.

On this 15th Sunday of Ordinary time, we hear how the prophet Amos who was a simple shepherd had just one of these, "The LORD took me from following the flock, & said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people of Israel.'" It was a time in the history when there was a superabundance of court prophets, the spin-doctors of that age. They were kept & paid for by the king, & their task was to put before the people, as being the will of God, what really were the secret ambitions & policies of the king himself. Amos refused to be one of these professional prophets, & in turn they banded against him & told him to go home to his own countrymen of Judah. "Go away," they said, "we want no more of your style of prophesying." Indeed it was Amos alone, who had been given an authentic message by God. He tried to get them to change, especially in the area of social justice. And it was also Amos who saw that while, outwardly, Israel seemed thriving & healthy, inwardly, it was stricken with a malignant cancer; guilty of social injustices, it was also reneging on its call to be in a special way God's people. There would be no more special privileges for them, but only disaster. He delivered this warning from God, "Behold the eyes of the Lord God are upon this sinful kingdom, & I will wipe it off the face of the earth."

In today's gospel of Mark, Jesus sends out His apostles, 2X2 to spread the good news of the Kingdom of God, to drive out demons & heal unclean spirits. They were given a mission like Amos was given. I heard one of the Eucharistic pilgrims, a young woman, give us the reason she has been walking for a couple months to the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis which will be happening later this week. She said, because she was given a mission from Jesus who said "Leave everything behind & come follow me." Whoa! That's just what's been happening for millennia too. It is happening to all of us. So share your faith, not only in words even when others think talking in public about religion & politics is taboo. Teach them by example as well. You don't have to beat them up or burn bridges with others to do it. And if they are not receptive, at least you tried to plant some seeds. Say a quick prayer to the Holy Spirit to put the right words in your mouth. He will, if you ask Him. After all, we were given the gifts of Holy Spirit at our Baptism & Confirmation.

Most of all pray for others conversion, especially in your own family. Lead by example, don't deny how God is moving in your life. After all, being in community with the Lord leads to real happiness & contentment & who doesn't need that right now. Love God first & one another. Be sure & check out the Eucharistic Congress on EWTN or Relevant radio this week. See you in church?

Vicariate III Mass & Eucharistic Procession as part of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage in the Archdiocese of Chicago

On Saturday Jun 29, 2024 Bishop Lombardo celebrated a Mass and held a Eucharistic Procession at St. Francis of Rome as a way of enabling participation for all those who will not be present at the National Eucharist Congress in Indianapolis this July. At the end of Mass there were two surprise guest speakers - a young lady who had been walking for six weeks in the National Eucharist Procession and a priest who had just joined the pilgrimage. It was moving to hear their personal stories and motivations behind their reasons for being part of this historic event.

Misa del Vicariato III y Procesión Eucarística como parte de la Peregrinación Eucarística Nacional en la Arquidiócesis de Chicago

El sábado 29 de junio de 2024, el obispo Lombardo celebró una misa y realizó una procesión eucarística en la iglesia de San Francisco de Roma como una forma de permitir la participación de todos aquellos que no estarán presentes en el Congreso Eucarístico Nacional en Indianápolis este julio. De sorpresa, al final de la Misa hablaron dos invitados: una joven que había caminado seis semanas en la Procesión Eucarística Nacional y un sacerdote que acababa de unirse a la peregrinación. Fue conmovedor escuchar sus historias personales y sus razones que los motivaron a ser parte de este evento histórico.
